kindergarten - graduating seniors Classic Camps

Our traditional classic residential camps are designed to give children and youth an opportunity to avoid the distractions of busy lives so that they can focus in on God.

In a natural setting, they will build friendships, explore, be creative, worship, pray, learn, and find adventures that lead towards loving God, themselves, and others more.

That Thing is a missional conference event that combines big event experiences with the fun-tight community of camp.

Most commonly, churches reserve entire lodges to help the camp experience be a part of the faith community's discipleship plan.

Students coming without a church use an Epworth lodge called the Campus House to room together in new dynamic communities.

Dive into nationally-recognized keynoters, dynamic worship gatherings, small group sessions, community activities, fun, and recreation.

all ages Family Camps

It all goes so fast... Take a chance to slow it all down and come to camp with your children. Leave the phones, game systems, and distractions behind. Connect, laugh, and love together.

The spiritual journey of camp will help parents and kids find time to learn about God's grace and goodness through togetherness. It can help families establish open conversation lines and trust for those journeys through the teenage years.

Nearly 1,000 volunteers are required each summer to facilitate the Impact 2818 church camp events. Those leaders are part of the many partner churches and their leadership networks throughout Indiana.

Additionally, hundreds of volunteers are needed year-round assisting in grounds-keeping, facility maintenance, food services, retreat hosting, fund-raising, and camp promotions.

Impact 2818 is a Christian camping ministry with camps and events at seven Indiana locations. This is a ministry of the United Methodist Churches of Indiana open to, and inviting, everyone.
